

Online Safety and Information

- Childnet provide guidance for schools on cyberbullying. Childnet offers a toolkit to support parents and carers of children of any age to start discussions about their online life, to set boundaries around online behaviour and technology use, and to find out where to get more help and support
- Commonsensemedia provide independent reviews, age ratings, & other information about all types of media for children and their parents
- National Crime Agency/CEOP Thinkuknow provides support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online and for advice on making a report about online abuse Parental support;
- Parentzone provides help for parents and carers on how to keep their children safe online
- Let's Talk About It provides advice for parents and carers to keep children safe online
- Stopitnow resource from The Lucy Faithfull Foundation can be used by parents and carers who are concerned about someone's behaviour, including children who may be displaying concerning sexual behaviour (not just about online)
- Net-aware provides support for parents and carers from the NSPCC and O2, including a guide to social networks, apps and games
- UK Safer Internet Centre provide tips, advice, guides and other resources to help keep children safe online; how to report and remove harmful online content and guidance on safe remote learning Support for children
- Internet Matters provide age-specific online safety checklists, guides on how to set parental controls on a range of devices, and a host of practical tips to help children get the most out of their digital world
- Educateagainsthate provides practical advice and support on protecting children from extremism and radicalisation